My Treatment Philosophy

I am supportive of clients from all different backgrounds and believe my clients treatment should be focused on their personal values and beliefs. I come with a genuine willingness to learn about my client's unique identities so I can support them based on their individual needs.

A little bit about me...

During the warmer times of year, I enjoy spending time in nature, hiking, camping, and paddle boarding. During the colder months I enjoy cuddling up to a good show or doing anything indoors that taps into my creative side.
